BILL DORENKOTT

HEAD COACH

5TH SEASON
CLEVELAND STATE '91

Ohio State women's swimming is a program on the rise, under the steady and patient leadership of fifth-year coach Bill Dorenkott. Since his arrival in 2008, the Buckeyes are well on their way to achieving his vision as a consistent contender vying for Big Ten Conference titles, racing for NCAA crowns, and sending its athletes to the Olympic Games and World Championships.

That progress has been built with a solid foundation. In Dorenkott's first season as Ohio State's head coach (2009), he took a team that hadn't had a Top 5 finish at the Big Ten championships in more than a decade and managed an eighth-place finish that represented an important step in the evolution of the program.

In 2012, Ohio State finished third at the Big Ten championships, while 26 Buckeyes tallied a 3.0 or higher during the winter quarter. The squad collected the most Academic All-Big Ten honorees with 19 - the most by any Ohio State varsity sport during the 2011-12 campaign.

The program took its momentum from the season into the summer as the Scarlet and Gray posted the largest contingent at the U.S. Olympic Trials with 15 swimmers traveling to Omaha, Neb. Shannon Draves highlighted the biggest national meet of the year with an appearance in the 200 meter butterfly finals - the first Buckeye to advance to an Olympic Trials final in school history.

In 2010, the Buckeyes held off two other programs to finish in fifth place at the Big Ten championships. The Top 5 effort represents the highest finish for the team in 13 years (since the 1997 team finished fifth). The 399 points was the most scored by Ohio State in 16 years. In 2011, the progression continued, as the Scarlet and Gray finished an impressive third at Big Tens and 17th at the NCAA championships.

A proven winner who inspires that excellence in his swimmers, Dorenkott placed three Big Ten championships - 2002, 2005 and 2006 - on his resume during a 10-year stint as Penn State's women's coach; the Nittany Lions never finished lower than fourth at the women's Big Ten championships during the Dorenkott decade (prior to his arrival, they had never finished higher than fourth). His Nittany Lion teams also finished in the Top 20 at the NCAA championships in three of his last five years in State College.

Dorenkott has coached 28 different student-athletes to 33 Big Ten individual championships, including 19 women to 30 Big Ten titles. During his final season of three coaching the Penn State men, he guided Pat Schirk to an NCAA championship in the men's 200 backstroke. A total of 57 of his PSU swimmers qualified for the U.S. Olympic Trials, and his student-athletes set 10 Big Ten records and four Big Ten championship records.

Just as in the pool, Dorenkott's athletes experience success in the classroom. Two of his Penn State swimmers earned the prestigious NCAA postgraduate scholarship. He has had a total of 232 academic All-Big Ten honorees and 45 College Swimming Coaches Association Scholar (CSCAA) All-Americans. His teams have been honored with a CSCAA Team Academic award 13 times, most recently in 2012.

Dorenkott recruits student-athletes who have vision and goals beyond just being a swimmer. In fact, he recruits on the philosophy that swimming is going to be the fourth-most important priority for his student athletes. He believes if his athletes take care of the first three priorities: 1) Be a great person; 2) Remember who you are, where you came from and understand that family is important; and 3) You are at Ohio State to get an education, and your degree will open doors for you a long time after you leave Ohio State.

Dorenkott has coached on four continents, and his student-athletes have competed in the Olympic Games, PanAm Games, World University Games, World Championships, Pan-Pacific Championships, U.S. National Championships and on the U.S. International circuit. He has been a member of the United States Swimming National Team coaching staff since 2001. He served on the U.S. National Team coaching staff during the 2001 World University Games, the 2003 PanAm Games and the 2007 Japan International Grand Prix.

An outstanding competitor as a student-athlete at Cleveland State, Dorenkott became a 15-time conference champion, setting a school record in the process. He was a varsity record holder and a U.S. National qualifier and scorer. In 1990, he earned the team MVP award and then served as a team captain in 1991. Dorenkott received two degrees while attending Cleveland State, earning bachelor's degrees in both communications and psychology.

He was named a graduate assistant coach of the men's and women's swim team at Ashland University in 1991 immediately following graduation and was named head coach of both teams after just two seasons. In his first season at Ashland, he led the women's team to a conference championship, and led the men to a fourth place showing. He turned the men's team around the next season as they joined the women's team as conference champions as the women repeated. In his two seasons as the Eagles' mentor, the program produced 16 All-Americans in 49 events. Five Ashland swimmers were named Academic All-Americans in 1995, and 33 records were set under Dorenkott's tutelage. His 1995 men's team finished sixth at NAAs after a 9-2 dual meet season, and the women placed 11th. While at Ashland, Dorenkott was the 1993-94 and 1994-95 Penn-Ohio Conference Women's Swimming Coach of the Year and the 1994-95 Penn-Ohio Conference Men's Swimming Coach of the Year. He served as the meet director of the 1994-95 Men's and Women's NCAA Swimming and Diving Championships. He also served as the head coach of Ashland's women's tennis team from 1991-93.

A native of Westlake, Ohio, Dorenkott and his wife Adrienne (who like Bill, swam at Cleveland State) have four children - Jack, Matt, Ann and Will.

VINCE PANZANO

HEAD DIVING COACH

35TH SEASON

Mike Peppe. Ron O'Brien. Vince Panzano. The strong and respected Ohio State University diving program has had only three coaches in its remarkable history and it only seems right that all three are Ohio State graduates. Peppe started the program and coached 44 NCAA champions, including O'Brien, and 25 Olympians. O'Brien coached eight NCAA champions and eight Olympians before turning the program over to Panzano, who was one of O'Brien's divers between 1970-72. Panzano, who has coached 12 NCAA champions and nine Olympians, has been coach at Ohio State since 1977 and now, 34 years later, he is the dean of all Ohio State head coaches.

One of the most highly respected diving coaches, the four-time Olympic coach Panzano most recently guided Katie Bell to the 2012 London Olympics on the 10-meter platform last summer. Panzano also helped Bell to a U.S. Diving national championship on the 10-meter platform in August, 2009, and in 2008 coached Chelsea Davis and Sean Moore to national championships on the 3-meter and 10-meter platform events, respectively, at the NCAA championship meets. Last season, Panzano, the 2012 Big Ten Diving Coach of the Year, guided Big Ten Medal of Honor Winner Bianca Alvarez to two Big Ten titles.

Panzano is a 1973 graduate of Ohio State. He began his coaching career at the University of Tennessee in 1973 and returned to his alma mater to succeed O'Brien in 1978.

In his 39 years as a Division I coach, Panzano has produced one world champion, one junior world champion, two Olympic medalists, 23 U.S. diving champions, 12 NCAA champions, 16 NCAA runners-up, 57 Big Ten champions and 87 All-Americans. Panzano also has coached Ohio State and McDonald's Diving to six national team titles. He has had divers on five of the last six Olympic Teams.

Panzano has been named Big Ten Diving Coach of the Year 10 times throughout his career.

The 2007 Big Ten Coach of the Year award was Panzano's sixth on the men's side with the others coming in 1987-92-93-02-04. He has been named women's diving coach of the year five times, in 1993-96-00 and 2012.

Panzano has twice been awarded the "Mike Peppe Award," as U.S. Diving's outstanding coach. Panzano also has been selected NCAA Diving Coach of the Year four times. In 1996, Panzano was inducted into Ohio State University's Athletics Hall of Fame.

Panzano has a rich coaching experience in diving on the international level. He has served as the Olympic coach on four separate occasions. He has served as coach for the Pan American Team, a World Championship and in World Cup competitions. He also has been actively involved in coaching Junior Olympic divers.

Aside from coaching, Panzano served as meet director for the 1976 Olympic Trials. He hosted the first-ever United States vs. China dual diving meet in 1980 at Ohio State and in 1981 he hosted the indoor U.S. Diving Championships, also held at Ohio State. He has served on the United States Diving Board of Directors, the NCAA Swimming and Diving Rules Committee and the United States Diving International/Olympic Committee.

Coach Award of Excellence to Panzano

Vince Panzano was honored with the Coach Award of Excellence from USA Diving. He was recognized in 2009 (along with co-recipient Jeff Huber, from Indiana) after his divers' performances at the AT&T National Diving Championships in August in Tallahassee, Fla.

Katie Bell captured a national championship on platform - the 23rd USA Diving national champion for Panzano - and five other divers turned in top eight performances: Sean Moore captured a bronze medal after placing third on the 10-meter platform with Wes Wieser sixth; Ryan Jefferson was seventh on the three-meter; Bianca Alvarez was fifth on three-meter with Kristen Asman seventh.

Panzano is a four-time NCAA Diving Coach of the Year and he has twice been awarded USA Diving's "Mike Peppe Award" - named after the legendary Ohio State coach - as the national Coach of the Year. He has coached 12 NCAA champions in addition to his 23 U.S. national champions, nine Olympians, 86 All-Americans and 57 Big Ten Conference champions.

Ohio State: 62 NCAA National Champions

The 2008 NCAA national championships won by Chelsea Davis, who was named Tri-Diver of the Year after the national championships, and Sean Moore represent the 61st and 62nd individual diving national titles for Ohio State and increased coach Vince Panzano's national champions total to 12, with 11 of those champions Buckeyes (he coached one NCAA champion at Tennessee).

LIZ HINKLEMAN

ASSISTANT COACH

FIRST SEASON
TOLEDO '08

Liz Hinkleman was one of the youngest head coaches in Division I swimming at the University of Toledo, leading the Rockets to the 2012 MAC Championship before being named MAC Coach of the Year. A proven leader at her alma mater, Hinkleman is now a Buckeye. Ohio State women's swimming head coach Bill Dorenkott announced this past summer that Hinkleman, head coach for the Rockets the last two years, has been named assistant coach for Scarlet and Gray.

"Simply put, Liz Hinkleman is a winner," Dorenkott said. "Liz has enjoyed success as a student-athlete, assistant coach and, most recently, as a Division I collegiate head coach."

"Liz is respected by her peers and widely considered one of the rising stars in our profession. The Ohio State University is fortunate to be able to call her a Buckeye."

A UT swimmer from 2004-08, Hinkleman was a three-time MAC champion in the 200-yard freestyle relay, setting school and conference records. Hinkleman also served as team captain of the Rockets twice, earning the "Captain's Award" in 2007. She returned to Toledo in 2009 as an assistant coach for two seasons and helped the Rockets to their first MAC swimming title in program history in 2010 before claiming the program's second title as head coach this past season.

"It's an honor to work with such an accomplished athletic department and I am excited about joining the Buckeye family," Hinkleman said. "I look forward to working with Bill and the team to help them continue to improve and compete for a Big Ten championship, NCAA and international honors."

In the water in 2012, Hinkleman coached two student-athletes to the NCAA Championships, including Laura Lindsay, a two-time All-American and first team All-MAC selection who was Toledo's nominee this year for the NCAA Woman of the Year award. Overall, five UT swimmers earned first team All-MAC accolades, while two others were named second team All-MAC.

"What most impressed me about Liz is her commitment to excellence. Her student-athlete's have embraced excellence in their academic, athletic and social endeavors."

But she didn't just produce champions in the water. In two seasons, Hinkleman produced 11 Academic All-MAC honorees, while 13 earned Academic All-MAC Honorable Mention laurels. During her first season at the helm of the program, the Rockets produced their highest term grade-point average in program history, recording a 3.455 GPA during the fall semester. The program's Academic Progress Rate (APR) for the four-year period from 2006-07 through 2009-10 represented the highest mark since NCAA began tracking classroom progress in 2004.

Prior to being named head coach at Toledo, Hinkleman was the assistant swim coach at Lewis University in Chicago in 2008 and served as the coach for a club team at Lewis, the Academy Bullets, before returning to Toledo in January 2009.

Hinkleman is a native of Munster, Ind., and graduated from the University of with a bachelor's degree in pharmacy administration.

"We are at a critical point in our program's evolution," Dorenkott said. "We are fortunate to have Liz Hinkleman on board to empower our young women as they pursue their dreams."
